

Article Overview

Bus ticket prices in Austria vary by route, provider, and ticket type, typically ranging from EUR5 to EUR30 for regional connections, with discounts available for seniors, students, and advance bookings.

Booking and Price Options

OBB Regional Tickets: You can book through tickets combining trains, buses, and trams for routes like St. Polten-Vienna or Klagenfurt-Villach. Prices depend on distance and ticket type, with options for single trips, day passes, or seasonal tickets. Senior and Vorteils card discounts are widely accepted. Tickets can be purchased online via the OBB Ticketshop or the OBB App.

Postbus Services: Postbus offers daily express and regional connections across Austria. Prices vary by route and time, and you can check schedules and book tickets directly on their website. They provide reliable and affordable options for both short and long-distance travel.

CheckMyBus: This platform allows you to compare multiple bus providers, find the cheapest tickets, and view schedules for destinations across Austria. You can save up to 70% using the Bestpreis-Check and filter by departure time, duration, or amenities. It is especially useful for planning trips to major cities like Vienna, Graz, or Innsbruck.

Regional Transport Associations: For local connections, such as in Vienna, Lower Austria, Burgenland, or Styria, regional transport associations (e.g., VOR, Verbundlinie) provide city and regional tickets. Prices vary by zone and ticket type, with options for single, hourly, or KlimaTicket passes.

Tips for Getting the Best Price

- o Book in advance online to secure lower fares.
- o Check for discounts: seniors, students, and holders of OBB Vorteils card or regional cards often receive reduced rates.
- o Compare providers using platforms like CheckMyBus to find the most affordable option.
- o Consider multi-modal tickets if your journey involves both bus and train segments, as through tickets can be cheaper than separate purchases. By using these resources, you can obtain an accurate price quote for your specific Austrian bus route and travel date.
